BOWLING MATCH

GLEICHEN VS. BASSANO

Last Friday evening a large crowd of people were entertained with one of the most interesting sporting contests that has been pulled off here for some time at Fred Hawtins' Bowling alley. The contest of attraction was a bowling match between a team from Glenside who came down from Glenside hockey team to witness the match and a team of local bowlers.

Immediately after the hockey game the bowling contest began. Practically the entire crowd that attended the hockey game was present to witness the bowling match. A series of three games were played and although the visitors gave the home boys a hard whipping none the less good scores were made by each side. The contest did not end until nearly two o'clock in the morning and from morning and cheer for by the supporters for each side it was plain to see Glenside has some keen sports as well as Bassano. This is the first contest between the two towns since another game will probably be played at Glenside on Tuesday evening when a special train will carry a big crowd from here to Glenside to witness the hockey match between Glenside and Bassano.

It was not until recently that the interest in bowling has become so keen but during the past three weeks there has developed some pretty good play among the boys and devotees of the sport are beginning to organize and without doubt quite a number of keen players will be discovered in the crowd. Already about half a dozen of good players have been found and although Bassano suffered defeat Friday night the playing has been improving. At the present time the record for the highest score belongs to Charles McCann. In a game last Monday night with John Wheatley he scored 264 and Wheatley 218.

In the game between Glenside and Bassano the following is the score:

Bassano	Glenside
Wheatley—	171 129 148
Cleve—	179 137 148
Darry—	136 160 192

WILL GO IN SPECIAL TRAIN

Arrangements have been completed whereby Bassano will be enabled to send up a delegation of hockey enthusiasts in a special train to Glenside on Tuesday evening next. About 100 people have signified their intention of accompanying the local hockey team on that date and cheer them to victory. A special train has been chartered for the occasion and the C. P. R. officials will send the train down from Calgary next time during the afternoon on Tuesday next and the start will be made from here at about 7:00 p. m. and will arrive in Glenside about 8 o'clock. This arrangement makes it possible for all businessmen to go who desire and Bassano will attend the big match at Glenside on Tuesday. If the enthusiasm increases as fast as it has for the past two weeks and the excitement at the match here last Friday is any criterion, this last game to be played by the Bassano team for this season is going to be a home run. At any rate Bassano is anxious in its support for the valiant boys in purple and white who have done so nobly in adding lustre to Bassano's banner.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to convey our heartfelt thanks to the citizens of Bassano for the kind assistance rendered us by them during the late illness and death of our beloved husband and father and to express our earnest gratitude for the sympathy extended to us since then.

A decided innovation in the way of exhibiting tailor made clothes has been inaugurated this week by The Art Tailoring Company through their Gentlemen. E. R. Muir. The display consists of a number of the most popular of the leading 1911 models—finishes complete and are placed on display for inspection by the public. This does away with the old system of the fashion plate and gives the customer a more satisfactory idea of what to expect as he has the work before him to examine.

The fine spring like weather of the past two weeks is starting a number of "back to the land" movement among Bassano people. Those who are holding down land beyond the Bow and Red Deer rivers are beginning to move their household effects and machinery onto their land and are making preparations to put in a busy season, the coming summer. Among those leaving for north of the Red Deer this week are Mr. Wm. Tupper, W. Fitzsimmons and A. H. Orr.

OBITUARY

After an illness lasting about ten days Mr. John Hennessy succumbed to a severe attack of pneumonia at his home at Hinton Monday evening. Deceased had been a resident of Alberta since January 27, 1910. He was born at St. Joseph Mo. September 22nd 1856. His parents dying while quite young. He was the 27th of January 1890 he with his wife and two married sons, Pauline Kneemann who with three daughters and two sons survive him. On the 27th of January 1890 he with his family emigrated to Alberta, located on land north of Bassano. Previous to coming to Alberta he lived in Minnesota for 14 years, coming here from Bemidji, same state. Beside the family he leaves one brother and two sisters who reside in Illinois and another brother living near Bassano.

Mr. J. T. Cooper Ex mayor of Hinton was a Bassano visitor yesterday. Mr. Cooper owns considerable property here and is very optimistic about the future of the town. He states that the towns along the Calgary and Melrose branch have suffered some from a fuel famine with the exception of Hinton where the dealers placed their order early and as a consequence the Hinton people have been well supplied.

Partis and Peat completed the erection of an Immanuel war house in addition to their building on Second Avenue this week and already are beginning to fill it with machinery. They are busily engaged making preparations for a big season's business the coming summer. This week six carloads of goods to their order arrived and are being unloaded. This may be considered as a record streak of business for the Bow Valley as it seldom happens that six carloads of goods are received by one firm in one week and speaks well for the business season of this early spring time.

NOTICE: That a meeting of the Parishioners of the Parish of the Blessed Virgin, Bassano, will be held on the first day of March, 1911, at 7 o'clock in the evening at the church to decide on expenditure of money on the vicarage and the location of the same, at which time and place all members who have signed the declaration of church membership, and who have been recognized attendants at the church for the three months preceding the day of the age of twenty one years are entitled to attend and vote. Dated this 24th day of February A. D. 1911.

A FAMOUS OLD BRIDGE.

It is interestingly decorated with historic pictures.
Few places in Switzerland are more interesting than the historic old city of Lucerne, at the junction of the river
Reuss and Lake Lucerne, memorable for the historic associations with the heroic legends of William Tell.

Across the river are two wonderful wooden bridges, the Muhsenbrücke, or "Mill bridge," with its quaint pictures of the "Dance of death," and the Kapellbrücke, or "Chapel bridge." This chapel bridge was constructed as long ago as 1333 and for nearly 600 years formed the chief avenue of traffic across the broad but sluggish stream.

At present the bridge extended its capsize shape to nearly twice its present length and reached as far as the Hofkirche, or cathedral, whence its name,
the Chapel bridge.

In the center of this covered wooden bridge stands the famous octagonal Waterhouse, or water tower, where in olden times the municipal treasures were stored. The tower was also used as a prison and among the dungeons
was a torture chamber.
But the most unique feature of all consists of the curious pictures in the roof of the bridge. These old pictures—sixty-nine in all—are painted on triangular wooden panels which fit into the pitched roof of the bridge. One after another they tell the most salient facts of Swiss history or portray events in the life of the people sainted of the town, St. Leodegar and St. Mary.

TAFFY CANDY.

Why It Becomes Sticky Through Falling and Weighing.

You have often wondered and have even gone so far perhaps as to have your scientifically methodized way candy or taffy made from brown sugar or even molasses become sticky by pulling and working. The question is not a hard one to find an answer for.
Provided you have in the right place,
but it is too chances to one that you have never seen a solution of the enigma in print.

First, the exposure to the air and the friction evaporates the sirup which contains most of the coloring matter, and facilitates the oxidation of the carbon in the sugar, which is always white. Sugar contains eleven atoms of oxygen to twelve of carbon and seven of hydrogen. The sirup drained from this same sugar in the refining process not only contains more or less of coloring matter, but has a smaller proportion of oxygen to the amount of carbon.

But another reason why taffy is whitened by the pulling process is because it is in effect similar to crushing. Pure, clear rock candy, when crushed, has its powers of absorbing light destroyed or greatly impaired, the pulverized portions reflecting all the elementary colors in each ray, which at once, results in the eye registering the impression of white light.

POULTRY

The following rules will be good ones to apply in connection with raising eggs on a cooperative basis. It is, where the community is thickly settled enough for a good number to be shipped:

1. Number of co-operative egg-producers associations are now operating throughout the state and have been successful in securing for the members of the association a satisfactory return on ordinary store eggs.

2. We recently noted the rate of out of these associations. In the thought that they would be of interest to poultrymen generally, we reproduce them herewith.

The eggs must not be over 7 days old at any time when delivered at the receiving place. They must be brought in at least once every week in winter and in hot weather they must be brought in twice a week.

3. The eggs must be taken from the hen house twice a day. All eggs must be clean and of uniform size. No small or overly large eggs must be accepted.

4. As soon as gathered the eggs should be stamped and placed in the cartons and kept in a cool place until shipped. A cellar is all right if not too damp or musty.

5. Brown eggs shall be put in one carton and white in another and each stamped on marked.

6. Stamp every egg with your number so that the lot number can be traced when the eggs are in the cartons. Put a small card in each carton with your name and address.

A Fellowship with Hearts

Whenever in the world I am, In winter or autumn, I have a fellowship with hearts, To keep and cultivate.

I would not have the outline will That hurries to and fro, Seeking for some great thing to do, Or accept thing to know.

I ask but for a thankful love, Through constant watching wise, To greet the glad with joyful smiles, And to wipe the weary eyes.

And a heart at leisure from itself, To soothe and sympathize.

—A. L. Waring.

Obstinate Open Sores are Healed by Zam-Buk

For sores which defy all ordinary remedies, Zam-Buk should be tried. Old wounds, varicose ulcers, cold cracks, blood-poisoning and chronic skin diseases cannot resist the healing influence of this great herbal balm.

Miss Anna Bourgeois, of Notre Dame, Kent Co., N.B., gives the following account of what Zam-Buk did for her legs: "I was afflicted with varicose ulcers and sores on my legs. I tried various remedies but nothing would cure them. I read in the paper one of the good Zam-Buk balm and I determined to try it and see what this balm would do for me. I also purchased some Zam-Buk soap."

"I washed the sores night and morning with the soap and then applied the balm. I continued with this treatment and after using Zam-Buk a few weeks the sores were completely healed. I have recommended Zam-Buk to one or two of my friends and sores, and in their cases it has been equally effective."

All druggists and stores sell Zam-Buk at 50c. per box or may be had free from Zam-Buk Co. for price. It is a sure cure for all skin diseases, including eczema, psoriasis, and all similar diseases and injuries. Refuse harmful imitations.

Net Lastly The best man thought he'd take a little of the soap and use it on his face. He was running as a fastidious bride and groom and so he was in the place where the presents were displayed alone and unhelping-looking, he came upon, youth, seemingly new to the wedding guest of the poet, to meet his bride. He was wondering about looking at silver and cat claws without ending them, to meet him hardly knew how to approach him.

"Have you kissed the bride?" he asked at last.

"No," the answer told far more than its two meagre words might have been expected to convey. It was, "Not lately!"

Mother Earth, are the heroes dead? Do they thrill the soul of the years? Are the gleaming suns and the popular red?

All that is left of the brave of yore? Go? In a grander form they rise! Dead? We may clasp their hands.

And catch the light of their clearer eyes, And wreath their brows with immortal flowers.

Wherever a noble deed is done, The pulse of a hero's heart is stirred; Wherever the Right has a triumph won.

There are the heroes' voices heard, —Edna Reed Procter.

Omissions of History John Morgan, the Confederate general, was rampaging through Southern Ohio.

"Those boys are county racials," he said, "ain't getting half what's coming to 'em. I'm nobody else but I'll lead their political corruption good and proper, all right. I will!"

And he did succeed in giving them an awful scare before the prison guards got the come-along on him.

Shows Remarkable Progress An episode of the Report of The Great-West Life Assurance Company for 1910 which appears upon another page gives an account of remarkable progress and success.

It is no small distinction that a company, established but 19 years, should have reached a business for years exceeding $94,000,000, and should, for four successive years, have stood first among the companies for business in this country.

It is a highly notable distinction that in all the rapid expansion occurring, the company has maintained a low expense rate than the Great-West, and its investments approaching $100,000,000, no loss of principal or interest has yet occurred, while the interest rate on investments stands at the highly satisfactory figure of over 7 per cent.

It will be observed that over $14,000,000 of business is written by the Great-West in 1910, thus establishing a new Canadian record, and a clear indication of the value the policyholders attach to their contracts in that with the largest business was an equally noteworthy gain in business of over $10,000,000.

The original view of the founders of the Great-West Life has been abundantly endorsed by the company's success in its business. Such a report as this issued by the company in 1910 clearly shows that the Great-West has been successful in expressing appreciation of a company that in liberal premiums, high rates and liberal conditions can offer to those needing protection such advantageous policies.
